Exploring Crop and Livestock Integration: Barriers & Benefits

Join us for a field day August 23, 2023 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

- Hear from a panel of area farmers about their experiences and strategies on farm diversification through combining livestock and crop production.
- Participate in discussion about the barriers, benefits, and drawbacks of incorporating livestock and crop production.
- See early study results, including a comparison of soil health across different farm types and farm management choices.
- Enjoy a delicious catered lunch!
